Beijing No.1 Intermediate People's Court

Order of Consumption Restriction

(2020) J01Z No. 256

Hanfor (Beijing) Capital Management Company:

On January 14th, 2020, this court opened a civil enforcement action brought by the petitioner Shixia Tao against your organization. Due to your failure to timely comply with the payment obligations stipulated in the Judicial Enforcement Notice within the mandatory period, according to Article 255 of the "Civil Procedure Law of the People's Republic of China" and Articles 1 and 3 of the "Several Provisions of the Supreme People's Court on Restricting High-Level Consumption and Related Consumption of Persons Subject to Execution", this court is hereby imposing restrictions on high consumption of your organization. Your organization and (Legally Responsible Person, Chief Executives, staff who directly relate to the payment of debt and person in actual control) of the organization, Xueyuan Han, shall be subject to said restrictions, shall not engage in the high-level consumption activities listed below, and other consumption activities that are unnecessary personal and business expenses.

(1) To choose second-class or above seats when travelling via airplane, ferry and soft-bed trains; (2) Incur high-level consumption in hotels, nightclubs, or golf course; (3) Purchase real estate properties; renew, redecorate or expand high-end houses; (4) Lease high-end office buildings, hotels, apartments and other places for office work; (5) Purchase vehicles that are unnecessary for business operations; (6) Travel and vacation; (7) Children shall not attend high-end private schools; (8) Pay high premiums to insurance policies or to purchase financial products; (9) Other consumption that is unnecessary for personal and business expenses; such as taking G-series high-speed trains, or first-class seats on other EMU (electric multiple unit) trains. If the (legally responsible persons, chief executives, staff who directly related to the payment of debt, and person in actual control) of your organization intends to commit the aforementioned consumption for private purposes and using personal assets, you can apply with this court. If your organization needs to commit the aforementioned consumption due to business needs, you should submit an application to this court and proceed with an approval.

If you violate the consumption restriction order; and it is proven to be true, this court will impose a fine and detention in accordance with Article 111 of the Civil Procedure Law of the People's Republic of China. If the circumstances are serious and constitute a crime, criminal responsibility shall be pursued in accordance with the law.

It is hereby ordered.
